SEBAGO FINALLY A WINNER

TAKES TIDEWATER PURSE AT NORFOLK AFTER STRING OF DISAPPOINTMENTS.

Horses Run Well to Form Over Heavy Course at Vir ginia Track-Husky Lad Changes Hands After Selling Race Victory.

Norfolk, Va., November 29.—A majority of the races at Norfolk this afternoon furnished stirring contests in which the winners were first home by small margins. In three of the races the outcome remained in doubt until the official placing was dispayed. Four favorites won and some of the others were beaten only because they were the victims of longling rides. The weather was cold and the track beavy and from present indications there will be little if any improvement in track conditions tomorrow, as it will probably freeze tonight.

A steeplechase handicap divided interest with the Tidewater Purse, a dash of seven furlongs for all ages. Sebago, after having proven a disappointment for his people on several occasions, made good in the Tidewater when he beat James Dockery a couple of lengths. Sebago was the medium of heavy backing and won easily after being reserved behind the pace to the stretch turn. Fiel, at 30 to 1, and Dipper, at 40 to 1, won their races by heads. The latter's victory was a lucky one, as Berkeley was undoubtedly best and lost only because Martin was unable to do him justice at the finish. One of the closest finishes of the meeting came with the running of the sixth race, in which Emily Lee Margonaut and Outlan finished noses apart. Emily Lee was ridden by "Dad" Minton, who, although riding as an apprentice, is probably older than any other Jockey here. Minton was employed for a number of years as head exercise lad for Col. P. T. Chinn. This was Minton's maden victory. The steeplechase contingent again scored heavily on the layers when Nottingham won the jumping race, On past performances Jesuit looked the next thing to a certainty, but he was not equal to the task of beating Nottingham this afternoon. The latter followed Jesuit to the last fence, then assumed an easy lead and drew away in the stretch launds after his victory. He was entered for $400 latter followed Jesuit to the last fence, then assumed an easy lead and drew away in the stretch racing.

Hushy Lad, winner of the seventh race, changed lands after his victory. He was entered for $400 and was sold to Sam Louis on his bid of $900.

There are a number of buyers here looking for cheap thoroughbreds. Among them are a couple of German army officers, who are here to buy horses for the Gorman government. They were only able to secure three at Lexington and arrived in Norfolk this morning. Today they bought Jacobite from N. B. Davis and tomorrow will probably secure several from W. V. Conran. The horses purchased at Lexington were Jack Irish Mike, Cometa and Mandorna.

J. Clay, who came from Toronto to secure a good two-year-old, purchased Rosturtium from N. B. Davis, and will ship the colt back to Canada in William Walker's car.

E. Suere, who is picking up some horses to ship to Venezuela, bought Dogwood this morning from A. B. Davidson.

Frank M. Taylor, who returned from Pimlico this to venezuela, bought Dogwood this morning from A. B. Davidson.

Frank M. Taylor, who returned from Pimlico this morning, brought back the news of the death of the good three-year-old Worth. The latter looked to have a good chance to recover up to Monday last, when he was taken with a sinking spell and he died on Tuesday.

Luke Le Blond left for Cincinnati tonight to remain until the opening of the Charleston meeting.

Jockey Mctahey departed for his home in Philadelphia, and Jockey Teahan left for Windsor, where he will spend a few days with his parents before continuing on his Journey to Juarez. Teahan plans to ride at the Mexican track until the opening of the Charleston meeting. Mctahey will not ride this winter. T. Davies leaves tomorrow for Capt. E. B. Cassatt's Chesterbrook Farm, near Philadelphia. He, too, will not ride again until next spring.

Tom Healey this morning shipped the R. T. Wil-

TWO PURSES FOR CARMAN STABLE.

New Yorker Starting Off Well at Juarez-Ladies Day Observed for First Time.

El Paso, Texas. November 29.—This was the first ladies' day of the season and members of the fuir sex accepted the hospitality of the Jockey Club by attending in large numbers. It was an ideal day for racing, but the track still remained a trifle slow. R. F. Carman furnished two winners. Compton, an oddson choice, scored in the opener at five furlongs, while Elizabeth Harwood beat a fair lot decisively at six furlongs in the fourth. Crossover was heavily supported, but was unable at any time to compete with Elizabeth Harwood and finished in the ruck.

was heavily supported, but was unable at any time to compete with Elizabeth Harwood and finished in the ruck.

The fifth race brought out an ordinary lot of selling platers. Minco Jimmle, heavily backed, showed good speed for a quarter of a mile, and then quit. Sidney Peters, who was running close up with the pacemaker on the turn for home, crossed his legs and fell. The others being well spread out at the time, all escaped with the exception of Arthur Hyman, which came along and fell over Sidney Peters. Neither rider was hurt, Arthur Hyman was so badly injured that he was immediately destroyed.

Jockeys Estep and Dreyer were suspended for ten days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the post. A. B. Spreckels, owner of the Napa Stock Farm in California, has shipped ten yearlings of his own breeding that he intends to race here next year. They are being trained by C. W. Carroll.

Willie Applegate dropped out of the layers' ranks at today's cut in.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

L. P. Doerhoefer and C. W. Gasser are among the late arrivals at Juarez.

Jockey Loftus is under contract to R. J. Mac-kenzie for the Juarez meeting. Capt. James Jacobs again has charge of the police arrangements at the Juarez track.

Tuesdays and Fridays will be ladies' days at narez. The admission to the track is $1.

The Newman, McDardel, Carman, Mackenzie and Tranmell yearlings are described as among the best at Juarez.

at Juarez.

Adam Bede, the Cambridgeshire winner, had top weight, 126 pounds, in the Manchester November Handleap, but did not accept.

Twenty-five well-bred geteings were recently shipped from Sydney, Australia, to the order of the International Race Club, Shanghal.

Price McKinney and J. W. Corrigan, Cleveland capitalists, who are stockholders in the Juarez track, have arrived at El Paso to take in a bit of the racing.

Stoneman, Goldman, Robert, Russella and Little Jake recently arrived at Juarez from Denver. R. J. Farris is about to ship Jearlan, Ben Uncas and otters in his string to Juarez from the same place.

Hugh Penny is talking of going to India this winter. He sent King Avondale to Calcutta last sumer, and the horse has been doing well in that country. Jockey Willie Dunn probably will accompany him.

Recent arrivals at Juarez include Barney Schreiber, J. O. Keene, "Silver Bill" Riley, Sam Franks, W. R. Norvell, Jack Atkin, J. L. Dinue, John Hogan, W. Moseley, Tom Brown, Joe Stern, Al Dobson and Joe Schreiber.

Signorino is the leading stallion in Italy, and his best youngster this season is said to be Sabrina, winner of the Premo Conscritti of $20,000, at Milan. This colt is out of Winkfield's Queen, by the Irishbred Berrill or Winkfield.

Hotels, rooming houses and boarding houses at El Paso are filled to overflowing with racing folks and the new million-dollar hotel, Paso del Norte, just opened, has already reserved all rooms. The merchants of El Paso are enthusiastic over the Juarez meeting.

Bob Co. whose death was reported from Lexington a few days ago, was bred by W. O. Parmer, and was named Bob Lo, the common pronounciation of Bois Blanc, a Detroit river resort. The Registry Office of the Jockey Club mistook it for Bob Co., and Bob Co it remained, senseless as it was.

delphia. He, too, will not ride again until next spring.

Tom Healey this morning shipped the R. T. Wilson borses to Belmont Park, where they will go into winter quarters. Mr. Wilson will have eight borses three years old and upward and fifteen two-year-olds in his string next season. The Ornus stallion, Olambala, has been shipped to Elliott C. Cowdin's farm in Kentucky, where he will go into the stud. Olambaia will be mated with eight of Mr. Wilson's mares next spring.

W. V. Conran will leave for Kentucky next week to take up eight yearlings that he purchased at private sale last summer. They will be shipped to Norfolk, where the will be shipped to Norfolk, where they will be wintered.

The McGinnis starting gates which have been used by starters Dade and Milton all season, will be shipped from here to Charleston, Mr. McGinnis having closed with Francis J. Pons for their use during. Charles R. Fleischmann, owner of the good steeple-chaser. George Eno, came over from New York to see his jumper run, but Silas Veitch thought it best not to take a chance with this promising three year-old fencer on account of the heavy condition of the field.

Jockey Vandusen suffered a broken collar bone as a result of his fall when Wanda Plizer went down on the stretch turn.

Mrs. L. A. Livingston has written that she will send shxteen horses to Charleston from her Rancocas farm. William Hayward will probably be in charge of the lot.

Clothes Brush ran in the name and colors of J. O. Talboit today, the latter having purchased the filly from Albert Simons.

The McGinnis have been used by Cyllene, owned by Lord Durham, made a somewhat sensational first appearance on a race course at Newbury when he ran away with the Ormonde Stakes. Lance Chest, which disapbolicated in the Cambridgeshire, was again made bean covered. Among the unplaced horses was a result of his fall when Wanda Plizer went down on the street burn.

An 'Australian bookmaker who had been expelled by one of the country clubs turned up at Sydney and attempted to do some future event business on the Caulield course at the close of a day's racing, "He donned the bag after the last race," says The Referee, "and was doing considerable business when the Victoria Racing Association detective appeared on the scene." The bookmaker was forced to return the money he had taken in and leave the place.

From since racing has been one of the leading the money he had taken in and leave the place.

Ever since racing has been one of the leading sports in Canada, that country has been a good market for the American thoroughbreds, and now it proposes to come over the line for other horses. A big company has been formed in Canada for the purpose of buying half-bred horses. The idea is to buy year-lings and two-year-olds. To that end a communication has been received at the headquarters of the New York Breeding Burcau, and within a short time a committee will be sent down to look over the produce of the burcau stallions in New York State.

WOULD HAVE COMMISSION NAME STARTER.

Lexington, Ky.. November 29.—In a conversation concerning racing and the government of racing, Edward R. Bradley owner of the Idle Hour Farm, stated today that he has made up his mind to ask the Kentucky State Racing Commission to make the appointment of a starter for the Kentucky tracks in future and that they adopt a measure making the starter directly accountable to the comission and to no others for this work and his acts. Mr. Bradley, in discussing the motives influencing him, criticized the starting in Kentucky during the past season and the starter's discipline over the jockeys, Mr. Bradley favors an arrangement by which the employer of a jockey who believes himself unfairly treated in the matter of suspensions, may appeal to the commission.
